JBS CERTIFICATION MARK PROGRAMME

The general policies of the JBS Certification Mark Programme are as follows:

- The JBS provides certification services for manufacturers participating in the programme and licensed to use the gazetted JBS Certification Marks to indicate conformity with Jamaican Standards.
- Where feasible, programmes will be developed to meet special requirements of the submitter. Where applicable, certification may form the basis for acceptance by inspection authorities responsible for enforcement of regulations.
- In performing its functions in accordance with its policies, JBS will not assume or undertake any responsibility of the manufacturer or any other party.

Participants in the programme should note that in the event of failure to resolve an issue arising from interpretation of requirements, there is a formal appeal procedure.

Further information concerning the details of the JBS Certification Mark Programme may be obtained from the Bureau of Standards, 6 Winchester Road, Kingston 10.

National foreword

This standard is an adoption and is identical to ISO 56000: 2025 Standard Specification for Innovation management — Fundamentals and vocabulary published by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO).

Scope of the standard

This document defines terms for and establishes the fundamental concepts and principles of innovation management.

This document is applicable to:

- a) all types of organizations, regardless of type, sector, maturity-level or size;
- b) all types of innovations (e.g. product, service, process, model, method);
- c) all forms of innovation (e.g. incremental to radical, disruptive);
- d) all types of approaches (e.g. internal and open innovation, user-, market-, design- and technology-driven innovation activities).

In this standard, the use of the words “shall” or “must” indicates a mandatory requirement. The word “should” indicates a recommendation.

Where the words 'International Standard' appear, referring to this standard, they should be read as 'Jamaican Standard'.

Where reference is made to informative and normative annexes the following definitions should be noted:

- Informative Annex – gives additional information intended to assist in the understanding or use of the document. They do not contain requirements.
- Normative Annex – gives provisions additional to those in the body of a document. They contain requirements.

Users should note that all standards undergo revision from time to time and that any reference made herein to any standard implies its latest edition, unless otherwise stated.

This standard is voluntary.
